Dear [redacted]

Thank you very much for your kind letter of welcome which I received today. I am looking forward very much to working with you and your colleagues in F.B.I.S., and I shall certainly do all I can to maintain the very happy relations which have been built up between our two Services.

I am very glad I had the opportunity of meeting you, although so briefly, on your last visit to London and I hope it will not be long before our acquaintance can be renewed. I note, however, that [redacted] will be acting in your place for the next three months.

STAT

I had an opportunity of meeting [redacted] on his recent visit here. We were very pleased to see him and I think most useful work was accomplished.

STAT

Richard Marriott has now left for Northern Ireland but I will certainly pass on your good wishes to him.

Yours sincerely,

J.T. Campbell
